Notice
(Attendance Related)

Due to various events, programmes and activities in the even semester (2024-25 session) like the College Week, Gunotsav, H. S. Final and First Year Examinations, ensuing Panchayat Elections, etc., the classes are likely to be disrupted (a separate notice will be issued highlighting the days when the classes will be disrupted). So students are advised to attend all the classes (even when they fall between two holidays) in order to maintain the required percentage of attendance.

Please the note the followings:

- For deciding about the eligibility to avail the benefit of Government of Assam's fee waiver scheme, Nijut Moina Scheme or any such scheme(s), attendance from 8th February 2025 till the last day of the classes (to be notified later) will be taken into account.
- Departments will use the attendance percentage to give attendance related marks in the internal assessment component.
- The Principal shall not be requested later to sign on any relevant document(s) to avail various benefits if the required attendance (75 percent) is not maintained.

For HoDs: Please ensure that attendance is taken and maintained in order to calculate the attendance percentage as and when required.
