Notice

(Prohibition of Mobile Phones/Electronic Gadgets during the ESE)

It is hereby informed to all concerned students that bringing mobile phones and electronic/digital gadgets to the college campus on the days of the end semester examination is hereby prohibited for the conduct of free and fair examination and also to ensure that students do not get expelled on the ground of possession and use of mobile phones during the examination. Therefore, all students appearing in the end semester examination are directed to come to college campus without the mobile phones and electronic / digital gadgets on the examination days.

Still if some students feel that they need to bring the phones to ensure their connectivity with the parents during to and fro journey between home and college, they have to ensure that the mobile phones are not taken near the examination halls under any circumstances. Possession of mobile phones in the examination hall (in both switch on or off modes) or any electronic/digital gadget(s) in the examination hall will lead to expulsion. The college authority will also not take any responsibility for the loss of the mobile phones.
