NOTIFICATION

(Change of Subject from Minor to Major for FYUGP 3rd Semester Students)

Interested B. A. and B. Sc. 3 semester FYUGP students (2026-27) are directed to submit the application in the prescribed format (Annexure-I) for the change of major subject along with the self-attested mark sheets of the FYUGP 1st and 2nd semester examinations.

The duly filled-in application form, along with a no objection certificate (NOC) and approval certificate duly signed by both the concerned heads of the departments, shall have to be submitted to the Office of the Principal (Shri Mahesh Kutum) on or before 8th August 2026.

The change will depend on the following conditions:

- The change of the major subject shall be allowed only if the student has studied the major and minor subjects in the 2nd semester
- The student must possess at least a CGPA of 4.5 in the 2nd semester examination (1st and 2nd semester combined SGPA) under the Chaiduar College autonomous system.
- The change to the new major shall be subject to the availability of vacant seats in the department.
- If the number of applications received exceeds the number of available vacant seats, the concerned department shall decide on an appropriate mechanism to decide on the matter.
